

The number in the central circle is the times table. Multiply that by the numbers in the middle circles to find the answer which goes on the outer circle.