8cm

5cm

To calculate this length, you need to look at the information you all ready have. In this case, we know the overall length is 8cm and we know that the other part of the horizontal length is 5cm so we simply do 8 − 5 =

2cm 2cm 3cm 4cm

To calculate the total length of this shape, you need to look at the information provided. In this case, you have the measurements making up the opposite side. So, we add these together.
2 + 2 + 3 + 4 =

Try this one for yourself:

4cm

6cm

5cm

3cm